

Morinda Honors

In this issue...

- German Olympic gymnast promotes TeMana
- Miss Tahiti, Morinda distribute school supplies to underprivileged Tahitian children
- Financial Freedom celebrated during Peruvian Independence Day
- Pucker up! IPCs enlists makeup artist to celebrate National Lipstick Day

Morinda/New Age featured in several articles

It's an exciting time for Morinda/New Age, and publications are taking notice! In fact, three recent articles have highlighted the company and its cutting-edge products.

First was Direct Selling News and its article "Morinda's New Path." The article focused on Morinda's merger with New Age, stating that because of the merger, Morinda is poised to experience explosive growth.

The article said: "With new research, product lines and strategic announcements anticipated for years to come, Morinda has a lot to look forward to. 'We have everything we need to be successful, and nothing is going to stand in our way of achieving success,' says [CEO Brent] Willis. 'Our key is to be fast, first, and focused, and maybe a bit fanatical. As we do, everyone will benefit as a fellow shareholder.'"

Meanwhile, the new 'NHANCED CBD line was the focus of two separate articles in CBD Snapshot: "How a Centuries-Old Wellness Fruit Helped Position This Company at the Forefront of the CBD Movement" and "Morinda's Newest Product Line Offers a Promising Glimpse into the Future of CBD."

Numerous Morinda employees from various departments are featured in the two articles, sharing the company's vision. That vision, as it relates to the CBD market, has yielded exciting results so far.

"Morinda distributors have been energized by both the merger and the new CBD-infused product line, as they're seeing interest, sales and sign-ups from a much younger demographic," wrote Jenny Vetter in the first article. Both articles detail what sets 'NHANCED CBD apart from other CBD products.

Go and read the linked articles to see what those outside the company are saying about Morinda's exciting developments over the past year.

GERMAN OLYMPIC GYMNAST PROMOTES TEMANA

If TeMana is the best of the best, then it's only fitting that it is promoted by the best of the best. That just so happens to be case in Germany, where Olympic gymnast Janine Berger is promoting TeMana Noni + Collagen, as well as TeMana Brightening and TeMana Beauty products.

Janine, who has participated in gymnastics since she was five years old, competed in the 2012 Summer Olympics and aims to compete in next year's Summer Olympics in Tokyo.

"Gymnastics is lifeblood! To have the feeling to be able to fly and to control your body perfectly in the air and to stand safely on the ground again is unique and unparalleled for me," she said.

Janine recently partnered with Morinda's German office, and will represent the TeMana brand on her social media. She will also promote Tahitian Noni Essential Oils Recover Rub.

In addition, Janine will attend Morinda Germany's annual event in the fall and will give a speech about success and defeats in life.

As a serious competitor, Janine is certainly qualified to discuss these topics. She's competed at the highest level, but also faced adversity, such as when an injury kept her from participating in the 2016 Olympic Games. She's had five knee operations and various setbacks as she's worked to rehabilitate her body, but was also able to compete in a final this month for the first time in five years and narrowly missed earning a medal.

"Success makes you proud, defeat makes you stronger!" she said.

Morinda Germany is excited to have Janine as a new spokesperson, and will certainly cheer her on as she continues competing.

MISS TAHITI, MORINDA DISTRIBUTE SCHOOL SUPPLIES TO UNDERPRIVILEGED TAHITIAN CHILDREN

Given what Tahiti means to Morinda, it only makes sense for the company to give back to the island nation. Among Morinda's numerous charitable endeavors relating to Tahiti, since 2015 the company has sponsored Ta oe Horoa, an organization that provides school supplies and pays school fees for kids from financially challenged families.

Earlier this month, Ta oe Horoa held a special event in which it handed out backpacks, lunch bags and more to children. Miss Tahiti 2019, Matahari Bousquet, and Morinda Tahiti Marketing Manager Leonne Maraiauria were on hand to participate in the event, along with various government officials.

FINANCIAL FREEDOM CELEBRATED DURING PERUVIAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

Financial independence is a wonderful thing to strive for during any time of the year, but especially so on Independence Day. That was certainly the case in Peru, where Morinda held three different city meetings during Peruvian Independence Day (July 28) to celebrate financial freedom!

PUCKER UP! IPCS ENLISTS MAKEUP ARTIST TO CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIPSTICK DAY

In honor of National Lipstick Day on July 29, IPCs Annastasia Henny and Rita Brown in Australia found a fun and creative way to celebrate. The duo brought in professional makeup artist Nur Aziza to run a group workshop for using TeMana Beauty lip products. In addition to sharing some great makeup tips, they took videos and photos and posted them on social media to promote TeMana.

“MY SKIN CAN ADVERTISE TEMANA PRODUCTS”

Japanese IPC Kazuko Mita, who is in her 50s, has experienced great results with TeMana skincare products. And, as a result, that has led to business opportunities:

“A young lady in her 20s asked me why my skin looks so great. So, I started telling her what I do and encouraged her to try our products. She signed up for the TeMana 14-Day Challenge. While talking to this young lady, I learned that she has been looking for earth-friendly lip products. Our conversation naturally flowed to TeMana Beauty lip products. She started using them. She even showed great interest in TeMana Silk CC Cream. I know listening to others carefully is the most important thing to do in this business. Others will reveal what they are looking for. Then, we just need to provide our products. By doing the Morinda business this way, I gained confidence in my approach to share various Morinda products.”

Spotlight Around the World

Around the world incredible things are going on with Morinda. Here's a quick rundown of several of the exciting things.

- Sales in Sweden have increased for five consecutive months
- Russia's first-week sales for August exceeded sales over the same period last year by 235 percent
- Bolivia's July sales this year nearly tripled the sales from July 2018
- In July, Australia reported the highest number of orders and active Premier members in 2019

